No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 24, 1863.

A TWO YEARS' WAR.—The rebel papers of California, says the Marysville Appeal, derisively ask, at times, how the work of "subjugating" the rebel States is getting on now, that two years of war have passed by. We answer that it is getting on exceedingly well. But that is not the way to put the question. It should be "How are the rebel States advancing themselves towards the independence they set out to win?" It is their motion, and if they can't carry it they are overboard. It is probable that no sane man thinks that they have made any particular headway towards accomplishing what they set out to do. They have been kicked out of every court in Europe and their piteous whines for recognition spurned and laughed at. Civilization turns up its nose in one universal sneer at their Slave Republic. The Union forces have never occupied any important point, from which the rebels have driven them. They find themselves at the end of two years in an absolutely starving condition, out of indispensable munitions, their ports blockaded, and shot and shell are falling to day in resistless fury on their great strong-holds. They see in the loyal States only a fiercer determination to subdue them to obedience to the laws. If there is anything in this picture calculated to cheer the heart of a rebel, their perceptions are certainly keener than other people's.—Having made no advance at all, the Herald thus points out succinctly what they have lost:

For two years the rebels have been fighting, and what have they gained? At the outset they had all the advantage of long preparation, while the Government and people were taken by surprise. They started out with full possession of eleven Slave States, and claimed them all. They have irretrievably lost all of Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri, they have been driven from parts of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas. Every harbor they claimed is almost closed hermetically, their finest tracts of country have been desolated and impoverished, their commerce has been crushed, their manufactures and agricultural operations checked, and death and misery has visited every household. But two short years of war—unholy—unprovoked war—yet the rebellious States have lost full one-half of their wealth and strength.—Their crime has been great and so has their punishment.

GEN. WOOL AT NEW LONDON, CONNECTICUT.—At his public reception in New London, (Conn.) on Tuesday, March 18th, Gen. Wool spoke at some length in reference to the war and the duty of the people to stand by the Government. In the course of his remarks, he said:

The question that is now submitted to you is: Are you willing to defend this Government? It was not slavery that your fathers fought for. It was liberty—

"Where Liberty dwells, there is my country."

It would be sad indeed if the descendants of the people who fought seven long years for the freedom that we now enjoy should falter in its defence. The cause of this wicked rebellion, said the General, is slavery. When Abraham Lincoln was elected President the South had control of the Supreme Court and of the Senate. He could do them no harm. Yet, notwithstanding this, they determined to rebel. It was not Lincoln they feared, but the growing power of the North, and they determined to secede from it. They hated its merchants and its mudsills, the only people worthy of consideration in their eyes are the Southern planters. They already talk of a Union which leaves New England out in the cold, but that will be cutting off the right hand of the nation. There is more energy, more activity in the six New England States than in all the rest combined. I am for peace, but not a peace that does not give us the whole country. Our only safety is in maintaining the Government. If the South wants to go, I say let them go, but they must leave us the land, and we will people it with a better race. [Loud applause.]

During his stay in New London, Gen. Wool ordered the arrest of Ordnance Sergeant Boody, in charge of Fort Griswold, for uttering sentiments disloyal to the Government of the United States.

ERICSSON ON THE MONITORS.—A dispatch from New York, April 15th, says Ericsson has published a letter, in which he says the imperfections of the Monitors are not of a serious character, and will be readily obviated. Everything worked precisely as he expected. No change in the plans of turrets is necessary. No class of vessels in the navy obey the helm more readily than the Monitors in strong currents and shallow water like those off Charleston harbor. No vessel can be so readily manœuvered.

A captured letter of Major Gen. Wheeler, chief of cavalry in Gen. Bragg's army, shows that the rebels, like ourselves, have sore troubles from desertion, insubordination, and demoralization. We may well imagine, then, how it would be with them, if, instead of shooting and hanging offenders as sternly as they do, they were to be indulgent toward them as we are. They wouldn't have, in three months, even the skeleton of an army.

EMIGRATION TO THE PACIFIC COAST.—A telegram from Des Moines, Iowa, under date of April 15th, says the emigration through that place to this coast, exceeds any former emigration since the days of 1848 and 1849.

Miscellaneous Paragraphs

Ten thousand dollars were sent from San Francisco on the 13th inst. to the Sanitary Fund in New York.

Gen. Rosseau has obtained leave to organize a corps of ten thousand mounted men equipped like the rebel troops under Morgan and Forrest.

The whole number of insane in the United States, as appears by the census of 1860 is 23,999, idiotic 18,865, insane and idiotic 4,864.

General Scott is President of the Union League recently formed in New York city. We notice the names of John Van Buren and James T. Brady in the list of Vice Presidents.

The Joe Miller men are again trying to raise an excitement. They now set the 17th of August as the day on which all sublunary affairs are to be closed up.

Nearly one-third of the women in England never marry, and 1,000,000 of females are thrown upon their own exertions for support. "What to do with the old maids?" is a question of startling import in Great Britain.

Twenty four soldiers, crippled in the defence of their country, offer (through the columns of the Washington Star) to garrison forts so that men more fitted for active service may be enabled to leave for the field.

The President received a letter recently with a Brooklyn postmark, enclosing greenbacks to the amount of $828, which the writer stated had been obtained dishonestly from the Government.

A gentleman who conversed, recently, with John Minor Botts, says that though taking no part with the Federal Government, he is nevertheless a staunch friend of the Union and lives in hopes of a speedy restoration of its authority all over the land.

One of the officers of the U. S. gunboat Chippewa writes that, Lieut. Maury, rebel, is concocting a plan in England to capture our squadron in the Mediterranean. The iron clads now building in Liverpool and Glasgow are intended for the purpose.

The Pacific Echo, published at Napa, Cal., hoists the name of Thomas H. Seymour of Connecticut as a candidate for the Presidency next year. As quick as a copperhead politician gets ripe for the gallows some paper of that persuasion wants to make a President of him.

Robert Smalls, the famous negro pilot, who brought the Planter out of Charleston harbor, says that 6,000 negroes are behind the batteries at Savannah, and 10,000 in and around the forts of Charleston. He believes that in ten days he could raise a force of 10,000 loyal blacks to fight for the Union.

A man, evidently insane, threw himself from the south tower of Notre Dame at Paris, and in falling, his body struck with such violence against the edge of a buttress that the legs were detached from the trunk and fell to the ground, while the remainder of the body lodged on one of the galleries.

The following evidence of the tremendous reaction going on in the Atlantic States in favor of the Administration, is cheering to Lincolnites. The democratic majority for Supervisors in Chemung county, N. Y., is upwards of 700. Seymour's majority in the same county four months before was 42!

The stone fleet sunk off Charleston, over which John Bull became so indignant at the time and after, has actually improved the harbor of Charleston. It is now deeper than ever in the channel, and is reported much better, generally.

A bill has been introduced in the New Jersey Legislature, prohibiting negroes or mulattoes, whether bond or free, from entering the State, under the penalty of being transported at the expense of the State, to some point in the South—probably Hayti. The bill does not disturb the free negroes now resident in the State.

Cyrus Hamlin, son of the Vice President, has volunteered to serve as one of the officers of the Chasseurs d'Afrique—new name for Gen. Ullman's nigger brigade. This acceptance by young Hamlin of a commission in a negro regiment will give color to the contemptible story, generally believed in the South, that his father is a light mulatto.

It seems that there is one inspector who won't wink at the rascality of contractors. A New Jersey shoe manufacturer recently had a lot of shoes returned on his hands with a large hole cut through the bottom of every one, so as to effectually preclude the possibility of their subsequent acceptance by any less conscientious inspectors.

Mr. E. A. Stevens, the designer of the long unfinished floating battery at Brooklyn, offers to complete it within nine months at his own cost and agrees to make it proof against any ordnance in the world, faster and more manageable than any war vessel and equal to any in weight of broadside, provided the government will then agree to take her at a smaller price than they are now paying for less formidable vessels.

A recent report of the rebel Secretary of War contains some curious and instructive admissions regarding the stringency of the blockade and the difficulty of obtaining supplies for the rebel army. He apprehends no difficulty in obtaining a sufficiency of arms and ammunition, but the question of subsistence is rather an alarming one. The harvests of the past season, he says, have not generally proved prosperous, and notwithstanding the much larger breadth of land devoted to culture of cereals and forage, the product in many extensive districts is below the average.

The thing needful, just now, is not more soldiers in the field, but better management of those we have. The North swarms with deserters and all sorts of skulkers. They should be hunted out and put into the ranks at once. Those who persistently run away should be branded with the letter "D" on the left cheek. If that is not satisfactory, let them be shot. Every General commanding a department should have the power to inflict capital punishment.

It may seem barbarous to persons who shrink and shiver at the idea of making war in a business-like manner to shoot men who run away from the army, but the lives of many brave men will be saved by the shooting of a few cowards, and even the cowards should be made to feel that the dangers of a retreat are greater than those of an advance.

AFFAIRS AT SAVANNAH.—Correspondence from Hilton Head, S. C., dated the 11th March, to the Boston Journal says:

Last night three men, conscripts of the 1st Georgia, came to Fort Pulaski, having left Savannah the night previous. They report about 25,000 troops in and around Savannah, about two thirds of them conscripts. They are kept on poor and insufficient food, not more than four ounces of meat to a man. They represent the poor people in great destitution. The rich have all left the city. Last week Beauregard issued an order for the poor to leave, anticipating an attack, and probably wishing to have the poor obtain their subsistence in the country. The people refused to go.

The deserters say there is a growing Union sentiment among the suffering, starving inhabitants, and the entrance of our troops will be hailed with joy, for it will keep them from starvation, which is haunting them in the future and which is now staring them from day to day. There is but little if any doubt of the correctness of this report. All the conscripts tell us that they are gradually nearing the inevitable end—starvation—that is, the masses.

They give the following report of the number of guns in position in the rebel defenses: Fort Lee, 7 guns, 2 mortars; Fort Jackson, 9 guns; Navy Battery, [illegible] guns; Lawton Battery, 7 guns; Hutchinson's Island, [illegible] guns; Fort Boggs, 15 guns, 2 mortars; Causton's Bluff, 2 guns; Fort Barlow, 7 guns; Bay Battery, 2 guns, 2 mortars; Ram Georgia, 4 guns; Ram Atlanta, 4 guns; Ram Savannah, 4 guns. The Savannah is a new craft with 5 inch iron plating and 4 inch rifle guns. Gen. Mercer is in command.

SPEAKING FROM SECESSION.—We suppose good Secessionists will be able to find fault with the late action of the Cherokee Legislature, which assembled a month ago, or more, in the Delaware district of the Nation, and which passed an Act seceding from the Southern Confederacy. The principle of secession, we believe, is the groundwork of our Southern revolutionists. According to their theory, the separate parts of a country are to be kept together by a sort of passional attraction, after the manner of the free lovers, and a divorce must be instantly conceded whenever the "affinity" ceases. The honeymoon of the Cherokee Nation in its alliance with Jeff Davis is spent. The fair Indian country has received the rude embraces of rebellion personified, played with his flaming hair and partaken of his burning but delusive kisses. Satiety got it. Satiety has been the parent of disgust. Familiarity breeds contempt. The Cherokee Nation has left Jeff. Davis' bed and board, and, reversing the rule, has in effect advertised not to pay any debts of his contracting.

It seems that the Cherokee Legislature has revoked the ordinance of secession, and annulled the treaty of alliance with the rebel Government. An Act was passed deposing all disloyal Cherokees from office, and declaring them forever thereafter incapacitated to hold office. Various other things were done canceling former proceedings of the Legislature. We have the impression that perhaps all the late doings of this body are not perfectly regular, but no one can deny that they are as much so as those divorcing the Cherokee Nation from the old Union.—St. Louis Republican.

VALLANDIGHAM AND MAY.—The following paragraph is from a Democratic paper:

The attempt of Vallandigham to speak in Baltimore was not permitted by the people there. May, another rebel sympathizer in Congress, has delivered himself of a Union speech, for which he deserves to be shot. Such men as May and Vallandigham are enough to damn any party that has anything to do with them. They and those who sympathize with them are nothing more nor less than traitors to the country. They belong to that class of Democrats who broke up the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions and consequently divided and defeated the Democratic party. It was their miserable and insane policy which brought the Republican party into power, and now they would like to have Jefferson Davis march his troops to Washington and declare himself dictator of the nation. Their talk about the Union and the Constitution is all a delusion, and intended to deceive the people, but we apprehend they will deceive none but themselves.

THE UNION SENTIMENT IN MISSOURI.—A letter from Palmyra, Mo., to the Boston Journal says the prospects of that State are most promising:

The rebel sympathizers are fast selling out and leaving their places to be filled by good and loyal men. The Union sentiment in Missouri is intensely loyal. It recognizes but two parties, the one for the Union, the other against it. So we think and act. We are getting more loyal every day. We understand the awful responsibility resting on the President, and we will stand by him through this fiery ordeal, and with him conquer or perish. Such are the sentiments expressed in the current of thought and in the public meetings which gather to consider the posture of affairs and the present crisis. We fear nothing for Missouri.

MASSACHUSETTS TO BE PUT ON A WAR FOOTING.—A bill has been introduced in the Massachusetts Legislature providing for putting the State upon a perfect war footing. By its provisions the able bodied male population of the State from eighteen to twenty four years of age, firemen and all, are constituted the active militia, and those from twenty four to forty five years are designated as the reserve. The former are to be organized in three divisions, and are to drill or parade three days in each year, one of these parades to be the usual May training, and shall do camp duty for three days, and drill besides at least six hours in each month from May to November, and three hours in each month for the balance of the year. Calls for active service shall first apply to those from twenty to twenty five years of age, next from twenty five to thirty, and next from thirty to thirty five. Exemptions are based on the French military system.

SUFFERING IN SOUTHWESTERN MISSOURI.—Great suffering exists in Southwestern Missouri. For two years past the country has been traversed by the rebel and Union armies, and wherever they have gone desolation has marked their course. The whole country has been laid waste. Houses, fences, cattle—everything used about the farm, and everything necessary to the subsistence of a family have been swept away—and what is equally as bad, the male members of families are all abroad, either in the Federal or rebel armies—and the women and children are starving. The St. Louis Republican says it has the assurance of Colonel Pound, who is in military command at Springfield, that unless something is speedily done by the State or Federal Government for the relief of the Southwestern section of the State, great numbers of the people must die from actual starvation.

MAINE AND HER VOLUNTEERS.—A bill has passed the Maine Legislature to pay the families of volunteers from that State a sum not to exceed eleven dollars per month, so far as their exigencies may require, instead of "in cases of actual distress," as heretofore.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

NATIONAL FAST.—Next Thursday, the 30th instant, is the day set apart by the President, to be observed as a national fast day. We have no information yet, as to the manner in which the day is to be kept in this city: but we presume there will be appropriate religious services. Whatever arrangements shall be made, will probably be announced in the several churches of the city, on next Sabbath.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The following cases were disposed of, yesterday, by Recorder McCoy:

Andrew J. Hunter, charged with setting fire to the city jail; committed to jail in default of $500 bonds for appearance at the next term of Circuit Court.

A. J. Remington, for breaking the peace; fined $20 and costs. An appeal taken.

James Rochford, charged with stealing $140 from Martenix Nelson; discharged.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judge Shattuck decided in the Circuit Court for Columbia county that County Commissioners courts could not adjourn over the time set for their sessions by law. This decision would render invalid many acts of the commissioners' court in this county in years past.

BEEF.—The Superintendent of the Penitentiary will receive sealed proposals to furnish beef for that institution for three months, until twelve o'clock, M., 30th inst. See advertisement.

DUE.—The steamer Sierra Nevada, from San Francisco via Victoria, is now due at this port. She will probably arrive to-day.

NO DISPATCHES.—Up to the time of going to press, the stage had not arrived at Salem, so that we are without our usual eastern dispatches.

THE GULF STREAM.—A letter describing a voyage to Europe, says: While bounding along in the current of the Gulf Stream, I could not help thanking God for that beneficent provision by which Northern Europe is made not only inhabitable but beautiful; and I thought also of the fact that Europe owes it to an American citizen that she has learned how to take commercial advantage of that wonderful river of the ocean. It is not Maury to whom we are indebted for the best part of our knowledge of this current of warm water. We owe the debt to Dr. Franklin; and it was Dr. Franklin also that taught the seamen of all countries how they could avail themselves of the advantages of this current in crossing the Atlantic, and then to leave it at points convenient to our New England and other Northern seaports. Before his day European navigators followed the stream from east to west, without daring to abandon it till it landed. This course carried the trade of the world, not to Boston, or New York, or Philadelphia, but to Charleston. Charleston, therefore, at that period, promised to be the great emporium of our continent. But Dr. Franklin, getting a hint or two from a fisherman, known as Capt. Folger, looked into the matter, and soon discovered that directly by the side of the Gulf Stream, and between it and the coast of North America, there is a current of cold water setting back from the north of Europe, starting in the neighborhood of Spitzbergen, and emptying into those very seas whence proceeds the stream that warms and fertilizes Europe. A ship had only, therefore, after enjoying the mellow weather of this noble stream till it had reached the neighborhood of some Northern port, to start off and run into the cold water current, and so, in the roughest season of the year, reach Boston or New York with ease and comfort. It was the knowledge of these two currents and of the laws controlling them that transferred the commerce of Europe from the Southern to the Northern States. It is to Dr. Franklin, in a word, that New York city owes its pre-eminence as the commercial emporium of the Western Continent. There are not many of our countrymen who have known this fact; but they ought to know it; and New York ought to raise a monument to its great benefactor as high as it can make one rock lie upon [illegible]

THE IMPROVED CONDITION OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.—Gen. Stoneman, now in command of the cavalry of Gen. Hooker's army, an officer formerly among the most devoted to the fortunes of Gen. McClellan, in a private letter, recently received here says:

"Judging from what I see and hear, I should have no hesitation in saying that the Army of the Potomac is improving every day, and that it was never in as good and efficient condition as at the present time. The study of the science of war is not permitted to do away with the necessity of a knowledge and practice of the art of war. I think the three requisites to constitute a good military organization, the physical, the moral and the intellectual, are now in more happy accord than they have ever been before, and I trust and pray that they may remain so; and that this army has ceased to be an engine with which to experiment and to test Generals, or rather men, to find out if they could ever become Generals.—Cor. N. Y. Tribune.

CAPTURE OF INDIANS.—The Humboldt Times of April 11th, has the following:

One day last week, Captain Flynn, in command of Fort Baker, and Lieutenant Windell, with a detachment of thirty-five men, made an attack upon a band of Indians on the North Fork of Eel river, about thirty-five miles above Fort Seward, at a place called Big Bend. They killed thirty-eight bucks, and took forty squaws and children, which they started with for Fort Humboldt. Some of these succeeded in making their escape while on their way to this place. In the attack one of Captain Flynn's men, named Timothy Lynch, who enlisted in Oregon, was shot through the heart with an arrow. Orderly Sergeant Thomas received an arrow through his cap box, lodging in his belt.

POETRY.—Orpheus C. Kerr says: "Upon the uncultivated mind, my boy, the refinements of poetry fall like dew-drops upon an artificial flower, or like the more delicate tints of sunset upon a person with a glass eye.—Unlettered country people not unfrequently take Tupper's poems for perfect nonsense."

FRAUD PUNISHED.—A distiller in Bethlehem (Pa.) has had his stock of whisky (two hundred barrels) seized for attempting to defraud the Government in the matter of tax. The fine is $500 per barrel. The total amount of the fine is $100,000. The amount is said to be more than twice the amount the offender is worth.

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Last Cruise of the Monitor

(Concluded.)

We reached the Rhode Island; ropes were flung over her side and caught with a death grip. Some lost their hold, were washed away and again hung, [illegible] only the boat's crew. What hand [illegible] newly right arm hung a dead weight when strong men with their two hands were [illegible] down before him? He caught at a rope, found it impossible to save himself alone, and then for the first time said — "I am injured; can any one aid me?" Ensign Taylor, at the risk of his own life, brought the rope around his shoulder in such a way it could not slip, and he was drawn up in safety.

In the mean time the whale boat, nearly [illegible] struction, reached the side of the Monitor, and now the Captain said — "It is madness to remain [illegible] longer; let each man save himself." For a moment he descended to the cabin [illegible], and his faithful servant followed to secure a jewel box containing the accumulated treasure of years. A sad sorry sight it was. In the heavy air the lamps burned dimly, and the water, waist deep, splashed sullenly against the wardroom's sides. One lingering look, and he left the Monitor's cabin forever.

Time was precious. He hastened to the deck, where, in the midst of a terrible sea, Lieutenant Greene nobly held his post. He seized the rope from the whale boat, wound it about an iron stanchion, and then around his wrists, for days afterwards swollen and useless from the strain. His black body servant stood near him.

"Can you swim, William?" he asked.

"No," replied the man.

"Then keep by me, and I'll save you."

One by one, watching their time between the waves, the men filled in, the captain helping the poor black to a place, and at last, after all effort for others and none for themselves, Captain Bankhead and Lieutenant Greene took their places in the boat. Two or three still remained clinging to the turret; the captain had begged them to come down, but paralyzed with fear, they sat immovable, and the gallant Brown, promising to return for them, pushed off, and soon had his boat load safe upon the Rhode Island's deck.

Here the heartiest and most tender reception met us. Our drenched clothing was replaced by warm and dry garments, and all on board vied with each other in acts of kindness. The only one who had received any injury, Surgeon Weeks, was carefully attended to, the dislocated arm set, and the crushed fingers amputated by the gentlest and most considerate of surgeons, Dr. Webber of the Rhode Island.

For an hour or more we watched from the deck of the Rhode Island the lonely light upon the Monitor's turret; a hundred times we thought it gone forever, —a hundred times it reappeared, till at last, about two o'clock, Wednesday morning, it sank and we saw it no more.

We had looked, too, most anxiously for the whale-boat which had last gone out under the command of Master Mate Brown, but saw no signs of it. We knew it had reached the Monitor, but whether swamped by the waves, or drawn in as the Monitor went down, we could not tell. Captain Trenchard would not leave the spot, but sailed about looking in vain for the missing boat until late Wednesday afternoon, when it would have been given up as hopelessly lost, except for the captain's dependence on the coolness and skill of its tried officer. He thought it useless to search longer, but hoping it might have been picked up by some coasting vessel, turned towards Fortress Monroe.

Two days sail brought us to the Fort, whence we had started on Monday with so many glowing hopes, and, alas! with some who were never to return. The same kindness met us here as on the Rhode Island; loans of money, clothing and other necessaries were offered us. It was almost well to have suffered, so much beautiful feeling did it bring out.

A day or two at the Fort, waiting for official permission to return to our homes, and we were on our way —the week seeming, as we looked back upon it, like some wild dream. One thing only appeared real; our little vessel was lost, and we, who in months gone by had learned to love her, felt a strange pang go through us as we remembered that never more might we tread her deck, or gather in her little cabin at evening.

We left her behind us, one more treasure added to the priceless store which Ocean so jealously hides. The Cumberland and Congress went first; the little boat that avenged their loss has followed; in both noble souls have went down. Their names are for history; and so long as we remain a people, so long will the work of the Monitor be remembered, and her story told to our children's children.

New Use of Bloodhounds.—One fine summer's Sunday afternoon, as a steamboat was stopping at a landing on the Mississippi to take in wood, the passengers were surprised to see two or three young, athletic negroes perched up in a tree like monkeys, and about as many bloodhounds underneath barking and yelping and jumping up in vain endeavors to seize the frightened negroes. The overseer was standing by encouraging the dogs and several bystanders were looking on enjoying the sport. It was only the owner of some bloodhounds training his dogs and keeping them in practice, so as to be able to hunt down the runaways, who often secrete themselves in the woods. It was thought fine sport and useful too, in its way, ten years ago.

But now the same hounds are being made use of all through Alabama and Mississippi, and we have no doubt of other of the Southern States, to hunt down white men hiding in the woods to escape the fierce conscription act, which is now seizing about every man under sixty years of age able to carry a gun. Nor is this the worst. It is found that those camped out are supplied with food brought them by their children, who go out apparently to play in the woods, and then slip off and carry provisions to their fathers. To meet this exigency bloodhounds are now employed to follow these little children on their pious errands, and the other day a beautiful little girl was thus chased and thus overtaken in the woods, and there torn in pieces, alone and unaided, by the trained bloodhounds of Jefferson Davis! Nor is this a solitary case. It appears that many white men, women and children are thus now sacrificed in order to carry out the conscription act in all its terrors.

In a large number of cases those who are thus hunted down are such as have in some way exhibited Union proclivities, for although such have ceased to offer any opposition to the rebels, they do not like taking up arms against the flag of the Union, to which many of them have, in former days, sworn allegiance. These persons and all suspected are especially marked out as objects of the conscription and the bloodhound, be their age and fighting utilities what they may. And these are the men hunted down with dogs, and their wives and children if they attempt to follow them.— There are, however, many men not Unionists and willing to contribute of their property to any amount to support the rebels, but now being drawn into the conscription, or, having tasted the desperate neglects of the rebel service, have deserted, and will not again take up arms. Their wives are ladies, most delicate and tender, and their children brought up with a refinement and delicacy of the most perfect character until this war began. And these women that now have to wander alone in the woods in search of their husbands or brothers or sons, and these little girls, carrying food to their relatives, are liable at any moment to be overtaken by swift hounds let loose and set upon their track by the agents of Jefferson Davis.

It may be doubted if war itself ever but once in the history of mankind proved so disastrous to a people by the hands of those engaged in carrying it on. Perhaps at the final destruction of Jerusalem there may have been scenes of more fiendish cruelty by the factions of John and Simon destroying each other while both were at war with the Romans.— But what must be the state of the South when the delicate women, who would hardly set her foot to the ground for delicacy, and used to have servants to attend to her every wish and want, is reduced to straits like these, and children are torn to pieces by dogs of the human hunters after white flesh for Jefferson Davis' shambles.—Philadelphia Ledger.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

Philadelphia, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be, and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours,
ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
